JOHN SCOTT.

The public servant who understands how to demean himself as to secure all the attention he may desire for his public acts, and at the same time retain all the quiet seclusion of a private gentleman living aloof and away from the acrimony of bitter partisan life, proves he has qualities of manhood on which it is always safe to rely.

Senator John Scott occupies such a position before the people of Pennsylvania.

We never had a Senator in Congress who in so short a period established a fairer reputation for ability among his colleagues, who won at the very outset of his career, so much public confidence and admiration, and who has continued to retain the well wishes of his constituency and at the same time is so little personally known.

The reason for this, is, Mr. Scott has not a single element of the demagogue in his composition. He respects men but is no flatterer of them, he has a conscientious feeling as to the performance of a duty, and when that is done, his natural independence leads him to pursuits unknown to the professional politician, but where the man of mental culture finds his noblest enjoyments.

On this account Senator Scott is not perhaps, so well personally known by the great mass of Republicans as others of our representative men. He seems to desire to be known more by his acts than by his personal intercourse, as his record in Congress proves.

From the day he entered the Senate he has been and is recognized by such men as Sumner, Wilson, Fessendon, Colfax, Wade, Morrell, Morgan and others, then and now Senators, as worthy to be deferred to, as entitled to a front seat among the leading debators of that body.

His speeches are all arguments full of historic recitation and sublime truth. In committee he is a worker on whose results his colleagues depend, and for the promotion of the interests of Pennsylvania he has never lost an opportunity to labor. On the question of reform of the revenue system for the promotion of protection to home industry, and the assurance of a rigid management of civil service, he has taken the highest ground in the advance for the right.

His position on the repeal of the income tax is particularly statesmanlike—broad and comprehensive. So are all the views held by Senator Scott. He acts by conviction—is prompted by a high desire to do his duty, and is therefore, seldom if ever in error.

The appearance of such men in legislative bodies is a guarantee, not only that the public business is gradually passing into the control of statesmen who will conduct it carefully, but it is the evidence that the people are rising to a better appreciation of the duty which devolves on them to select men of character and ability to transact their business.

Senator Scott never assumes a duty without faithfully fulfilling all its obligations. In the Senate he is as conscientous in performing the work assigned him as he is in the Courts—strictly honest in his dealings with his clients. Such men strengthen the foundations of society and expand the boundaries of nations. Their records are written not in what they say, but in what they perform as auxilliaries to enable others to accomplish results. A great State like Pensylvania—practical in all her enterprises—dealing constantly with material things and representing every variety of wealth, and engaged in all the multiplied branches of industry, will in the future, only be satisfied by the representation of such men. Their calm judgment and pure character—their faithful devotion and tireless industry in her behalf, will continue to add to her political power in the councils of the nation and elevate her still higher as the Keystone of the federal arch.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE TERRITORIAL RESOURCES OF THE UNITED STATES.

The area of the land in States and Territories—that is—the States and Territories wherein the ownership of the soil is in the United States Government, is 2,867,181,74 square miles. Equal to 1,834,998,400 acres.

DEDUCTIONS.	ACRES.
Quantity sold	160,588,005
Entered under Homestead	15,906,730
Granted for military service	61,589,282
Granted to Agricultural Colleges	6,851,988
Granted to States for Int. Imp.	12,403,054
Granted as swamp or overflowed	60,099,000
Granted for Educational purpose	69,066,802
Reserved for Indians	13,280,699
Reserved for individuals, companies and corporations	8,955,383
Reserved for private claims	18,008,183
Grants for R. R. (official estimate)	280,000,000
Miscellaneous	9,154,219
Total	635,798,345
Not disposed of, but still owned by the nation	1,199,200,655

At $1,25 per acre, the general minimum price, the money value of the lands, still the property of the people, would be $1,499,000,068.

But, at least, 75,000,000 acres are reserved Railroad sections (so called) and held at a minimum of $2,50 per acre, adding $93,750,000.

Present total money value $1,592,750,068.

In this estimate no addition is made for the greater value of town-sites and mineral lands which is considerable and constantly appreciating, but which is allowed to off-sett any lands, if any such exist, which may prove to be entirely worthless.

It may be said, that these lands are open to homestead settlers, at a merely nominal price, which is the fact, but it must, also, be stated and admitted, that if all of them were to be taken under that act, the national basis of wealth would instantly rise from fifteen hundred, to fifteen thousand millions; and, that this ratio of increase will be actually realized to the extent of the increased homestead settlement from year to year.

But the real intrinsic value of this vast public property is not what it will sell for, but is in its capacity to invite, accommodate and enrich population.

Deducting Alaska as inarable, and allowing forty acres to every family of five persons, we find ample space upon the public domain for 61,209,000 of people, furnishing to all not only subsistence but competence. This would give a population of but 40 to the square mile, less than one third of that of many of the older countries and less even than that of several of the older States of the Union at the present time. In this view alone, and leaving out altogether the populations of towns and cities, the mind may well be overwhelmed by the magnificent future it is called to contemplate.

THE RAILROAD LANDS.

More than 150,000,000 acres of the 200,000,000 millions granted in aid of Railroad improvement, are equally with the lands owned by the Government, open to settlement and cultivation, and in consequence of their proximity to present population or completed, or progressing avenues of communication, are equally valuable to the advancing population whether from the older States or foreign countries.

So much for the land, States and Territories.

Hereafter a statement will be submitted, exhibiting the aggregate Territorial resources of the whole country.

THE narrow gauge is winning friends in the ranks of our most experienced railroad men and capitalists. Hon. Henry G. Stebbins, vice president of the Texas Pacific, recently contributed an article to the New York Mail, clearly presenting the advantages of the narrow gauge, its cheapness in building and economy in operating, which has been endorsed by such eminent authority as General Rosecrans. Our own admirable series of letters on the same subject have also been widely copied and commented on, and at no very distant day, if this agitation continues, we may see every farmer and manufacturer remote from existing routes building himself a railroad to connect with the system of his section.—Phila Press June 26th.

As the Democracy says the Philadelphia Press, do not accept the Kuklux bill, their new departure, so far as they have accepted it, is valueless. Amendments to the Constitution are dead letters unless enforced. To accept the amendment and at the same time to reject the law that makes it effective, is for a party to stultify themselves.

THE coolest place in town, is in front of Green's Arctic Soda fountain.

POLITICAL SENTIMENTS OF THE COUNTRY.

The political sentiments of the country both North and South, are, in what chemists call the nascent or forming state, as to what shall be the great and leading questions of the campaign of 1872.

The question of slavery is settled, after its long agitation and final baptism in blood.

Negro Suffrage has gained firm ground by experiment; and will, no doubt become fully established as a just right, and a fixed fact.

States' Rights and the Right of secession have gone down with the lost cause.

The payment of the public debt is no longer a question of doubt or dispute. It can and must be paid, partly by the present, fully and completely by the next generation.

Reduction of the taxes is not only a settled question, but part of the policy of the Republican party.

The question of Finance and the distribution of the National Bonds, are questions that the wants and demands of the different sections of the country must devise, settle, and control.

The Alabama question is settled in the recent Washington treaty with England; and in a way that the American people, of all parties, approve, and in accordance with President Grant's expressed policy of "Let us have peace."

The sentiment of the people is, that the disturbances and outrages committed by the Ku Klux in the South, must be stopped, union and loyal citizens protected, and offenders brought to justice. Law and order must be established, safety and protection secured to every law-abiding citizen without distinction of race, color, or condition. The right of free and untrammeled suffrage must be guaranteed to all legal voters. The late law of Congress on this subject, must be enforced at all hazards, the Ku Klux must be suppressed, and the purity of the ballot box preserved.

The question of Amnesty, and the restoration of all the rights of American citizens to the leaders in the late Rebellion, should be postponed for a time, until, at least, a more repentant and loyal spirit is manifested by the offenders. This is the public sentiment and it is right. The public opinion of the loyal and patriotic men of the nation says, wait a while before this is granted, for it is known now that we have already been too lenient and merciful to traitors.

The annexation of San Domingo is a question that the people are inclined to consider in a favorable light. But in view of the facts, that great events have transpired and great changes taken place so recently in our country, overturning some of its institutions, and setting up others it is a matter of doubt with many whether we are fully prepared for so important a measure as the annexation of this island of the sea, with its million of people speaking a foreign language, although such a step in some respects promises great advantages to our nation.

Polygamy, like the outrages of the Ku Klux is an evil that must be stopped. Public sentiment is against it, and it must go down.

Public sentiment is to-day strongly in favor of the administration of the Republican Party. Its plain, honest work in paying so large an amount of the public debt, and its laboring so assiduously for the peace and prosperity of the country, and for the happiness and good of the people, have extended its lines and strengthened its defences. All disaffection of its members are more than compensates and counterbalanced by the late speech of that arch traitor, Jeff. Davis, and the "New Departure" of the Democracy, which is a virtual acknowledgment, that they have been wrong and treacherous through all the years since 1861.

The death of Vallandigham, the prophet of the "New Departure" and the honors paid him at his funeral by the Democracy, rebel and traitor, though he had been through all the years of the fiery trial of Rebellion through which the nation passed.

These things, and many others now transpiring, cannot but strengthen the Republican party in the minds and hearts of the people of the nation.

NO NEW DEPARTURE.

It is the Atlanta (Ga.) Sun in which the Hon. A. H. Stephens has become interested as part owner and editor, and in which he boldly comes out for the Democratic platform of the New York Convention of 1868. He says in his salutatory article:

"A chief object will be to show, by calm and argumentative appeals to the good sense and patriotism of the true friends of the Constitution, North as well as South, that any departure from the essential principles of that platform will be exceedingly dangerous, if not fatal, to the liberties of the whole country.

What those principles are we need hardly inform our readers—but one chief principle is the famous declaration that the Constitutional Amendments, and the laws passed for their enforcement, "are invalid, revolutionary and void." The plan of the late Mr. Vallandigham, known as the New Departure, is regarded by Mr. Stephens as a tricky scheme to appear to acquiesce in the results of the war for the purpose of stealing the public offices. The Atlanta Sun will assist in no such conspiracy.

We have a luminary nearer home, however, which not only justifies the scheme, but makes beautiful arguments to prove that the "New Departure" is simply the same old course; and that all the changes which have been wrought and the ideas in which the new heresy is found are, in fact, nothing but what has all along been true Democratic doctrine.

It is very much like the argument from the same source showing that the Treaty of Washington, lately negotiated—in which Great Britain makes ample apology, and special and separate reparation, for the Anglo-Confederate piracies—ought to be accepted because it was, in fact, the same thing as the former Johnson-Clarendom Treaty, unanimously rejected by the Senate, including many Democrats, and in which those very things—the point of honor and the special injury—were completely ignored. Says the Baltimore luminary:

"The 'New Departure;' so called, of the Ohio Democracy is simply a reaffirmance and application to the issues of the hour of those original principles."

Which is lovely.

"Rightly understood, however, the Ohio platform, in those features which are considered novel, is but a new definition, or application to present circumstances, of principles and doctrines which have been professed by the Democratic party since the foundation of the Government."

Which is very much lovelier. "Lave out the 'not,' by synalaphy," says Father Tom, in his celebrated argument to the Pope, 'and, bedad, ye have it: 'black is white;' or green, or blue, or anything else," says he; "devil a bit do I care which," says he, "for it's all the same."

Most of us have heard of Dame Partington and her heroic but ineffectual effort to keep down the rising tide of the Atlantic Ocean by a bucket and a broom. She was devoted to her principles. She swept, and bailed, and brushed, and mopped, but the Atlantic Ocean was too much for her.

She tried to look happy, and said "She reckoned it wouldn't be much of a flood after all." Nor was the soothing explanation of her neighbor, the philosopher, a man who shed light for all, who advised a new departure, and a quick one, saying "that a conjunction of the solar and lunar attraction, obeying the laws of gravitation, deflection, and concatenations hyperstration, in their new definition, by some called novel, but in reality only a new application to present circumstances of the ancient doctrine of the man standing on the tortoise, which had been always, everywhere, and by all true Jeffersonians professed, &c., &c., &c., &c.," at all satisfactory. "Drat the man!" says she, as she shook her fist at him, hitched up her petticoats high above her knee (for the water was close up), and waded ashore, "it can't get much higher, but I'd better go back to the old landmark on the bluff, and where a body kin feel bottom.—Baltimore American.

VALLANDIGHAM AS A MARTYR.

Mr. Clement L. Vallandigham was a good man—perhaps a great man, but he had done many bad and wicked things. He had favored slavery, resisted the Government when it was fighting for its life, outraged the loyalty of the land, and insulted the institutions of free speech and a free press. His sins were grievous and manifold. His good deeds, national ones, few and far between.

However, he repented; he acknowledged the error of his ways; admitted that the negro was fitted for a higher condition than servitude; that the war which he opposed had been a just one, and conducted in a proper manner; that its results were binding, and that the Republican party and its leaders had been right in all that it and they had done, and he wrong.

For this we forgave him, spoke of him kindly, condoned his faults, and praised his virtues. In this we took no cue from the treatment of Lincoln and Stanton, Covode and Thomas, by the Democratic journals. None of these, even when they were in their graves, were free from malevolent gossip or mean inuendo. The slanders upon their memory, while they may have been short of libels in a legal sense, were none the less cowardly and cruel, notwithstanding, that ever emanated from malice or the gangrened natures that fill certain Democratic editorial chairs and retail their venom to an illiterate and debased constituency. This may be strong language, but it is weak compared to that of which we speak.

These traducers of the honored dead of the Republic are now engaged in making a martyr of Vallandigham. It is a task for which they are not fitted, and in which they will not succeed. This from one of them will serve as a sample of the whole: "In 1846 he was elected to Congress, and re-elected in 1858 and 1860. Here his bold denunciation of the outrages of the Constitution, under the pretence of saving it, by the Administration, made him the target against which the envenomed shafts of malice and vindictive hatred were continually levelled. This feeling culminated when in 1863, at the dead hour of night, his house was broken into, his wife insulted, and himself arrested without a warrant, upon the ipse dixit of the infamous Stanton, backed by his willing tool, the Rhode Island Burnside. His farce of a trial, his banishment beyond the rebel lines, his escape to Canada and return to his native State in defiance of the Administration and its myrmidons, in time to take his seat as a delegate to the Chicago Convention of 1864, are still fresh in the recollection of the public." In this brief extract the characters of two loyal men are blackened and that of one traitor extolled in as many lines. —Phila. Press.

For the REPUBLICAN,

COL. W. W. BROWN:

Dear Sir.—The Democratic political arena over here is getting intensely interesting. Bellefonte candidates throng this side of the mountain, in hard pursuit. First comes Orvis in company with Ira C. Mitchell, Esq., as a coodjutor, canvassing for delegates, Orvis says Meek is, to say the least, immodest to ask the democracy of old Centre to return him to Harrisburg for the fourth term; and besides all this his opposition to the Narrow Gauge Railroad will defeat the project entirely and thus deprive Pennsvalley of its much coveted improvement. And by the way, let me here state that the railroad question seems to be absorbing all others, so far as the politics of Centre county are concerned. We want a railroad; but we also want as well, to know the actual position of the ring candidates on the platform as adopted at the Harrisburg convention. Meek at first rejected the ninth resolution, and denounced in bold, strong terms the action of that convention in adopting it; but recently he seems to be receding from the stand he first took, and has modulated his tone very considerably in relation to it, so much so in fact, that we are disposed to believe he is entirely willing to swallow it down, provided it would secure his nomination. When I saw the Watchman boldly denounce the cringing of the convention, in proclaiming in favor of Nigger Suffrage, I said, go in Meek, good for you. I'll stick to you on that track. But since he has been trying to apologize for, and explain away the 9th resolution, I am afraid I will have to fly the course. As yet Orvis has not defined his position, on the 9th resolution. He seems to think it a delicate question, and would rather not handle it just at present, hence keeps mum; although he does favor narrow gauge railroads. Now if the Democratic ring of Bellefonte is to sway the sceptre of political power in the county this campaign, we want to know on what grounds it does it; we want to know precisely where they stand on the "new departure." If John H. Orvis intends to stand square on the platform adopted at Harrisburg, covering the 9th resolution, and swallow the whole, and then represent the democracy of Centre as with him, in the endorsement of the same, and thus support negro suffrage, and nigger equality, and acknowledge that the principles of the republican party as established, and their policy are right, then I for one, can't support John H. Orvis. And in this I think I represent a good many honest democrats. If the time has come when the democracy, are to court the darkey and advocate nigger equality, and surrender their party cry of "White man's government," and their last hope of the restoration of the republic, as the republic of our Fathers, then I say good bye to democracy, and let us give our support to the men and the party, who have always been honest in their professions of political faith, concerning Sambo. If the Democrats of Centre county are to endorse the Harrisburg platform, which wipes out all destruction between democrats and republicans, on the great political questions of the day, and concedes the policy, and principles of the latter to be right, then I for one am in favor of endorsing it by co-operating with the Republican party, which at least is honest in its views on that great question. Then the Democrats of Pennsvalley want Meek and Orvis, to certainly define their status on the 9th resolution. If they fail to do so, we have good and tried democrats in the county, who do not fear to take hold of both horns of the dilemma, and boldly denounce the "new departurists." Our Fishers, Munsons and Hunters, are yet alive.

DEMOCRAT FROM GREGG.

For the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, June 24th, 1871.

COL. W. W. BROWN:

Dear Sir.—Some weeks ago, I noticed in the "Watchman," a short article giving some particulars, of the early life of the Hon. Ellis Lewis, and among other things mentioned, was the fact of his being an indentured apprentice to the printing business, his leaving his master before the expiration of his time, and his being advertised as an absconding apprentice. At the time I was under the impression, some of the statements were incorrect in point of fact, and felt like correcting them, as I had the original advertisement, somewhere among my old curiosities, cut from a paper published in the year 1816. A faithful search then, failed to bring it to light, and now, when it has turned up, the paper with the article in question has been mislaid—so the correction, if it was wrong, cannot be made, but, as a matter of curiosity, I send you the advertisement thinking it might interest some of your young readers, though I would not advise them to follow the example of the great judge.

By the way, do you notice the prediction in the last sentence. I will venture to say, that at the time Mr. Jno. Wyeth, wrote that "copy," he little dreamed that Justice would "overtake" his absconding apprentice in the manner it did in after life.

"20 Dollars Reward.

ORACLE OFFICE, Feb. 3, 1817.

ABSCONED from this office on Sunday morning last, an indented apprentice to the printing business, named aged about 19 years, 5 feet 1 or 2 inches high, slim built pale countenance, and a down look. He was decently clad when he went away, but as it is pretty well ascertained he was encouraged and enticed to this desertion by those whose sense of moral obligations is equal to his own, it is probable he will be provided with funds to exchange his apparel. The above reward, and all reasonable expences paid for his apprehension and delivery to his master. All persons are forbid harboring him at their peril. And the young man may rest assured, that however he may hug himself on his dexterity at running away, justice, sooner or later, will overtake him, to his cost. JOHN WYETH.

ELLIS LEWIS,

OVER THE HILL TO THE POOR-HOUSE.

Over the hill to the poor-house I'm trudgin' my weary way—
I, a woman of seventy, and only a trifle gray—
I, whom am smart an' chipper, for all the years I've told,
As many another woman that's only half as old.

Over the hill to the poor-house—I can't quite make it dear!
Over the hill to the poor-house—It seems so horrid queer!
Many a step I've taken a-toilin' to and fro,
But this is a sort of journey I never though to go.

What is the use of heapin' on me a pauper's shame?
Am I lazy or crazy? am I blind or lame?
True, I am not so supple, nor yet so awful stout;
But charity ain't no favor, if one can live without.

I am willin' and anxious an' ready any day
To work for a decent livin', an' pay my honest way;
For I can earn my victuals, an' more too, I'll be bound,
If any body only is willin' to have me round.

Once I was young and han'some—I was, upon my soul—
Once my cheeks was roses, my eyes as black as coal:
And I can't remember, in them days, of hearin' people say,
For any kind of a reason, that I was in their way.

'Taint no use of boastin', or talkin' over free,
But many a house an' home was open then to me;
Many han'some offers I had from likely men,
And nobody ever hinted that I was a burden then.

And when to John I was married, sure he was good and smart,
But he and all the neighbors would own I done my part:
For life was all before me, an' I was young an' strong,
And I worked the best that I could in tryin' to get along.

And so we worked together: and life was hard, but gay,
With now and then a baby for to cheer us on our way;
Till we had half a dozen, an' all growed clean an' neat,
An' went to school like others, an' had enough to eat.

So we worked for the child'rn, and raised 'em every one;
Worked for 'em summer and winter, just as we ought to've done;
Only perhaps we humored 'em, which some good folks condemn,
But every couple's child'rn's a heap the best to them.

Strange how much we think of our blessed little ones!—
I'd have died for my daughters; I'd have died for my sons;
And God he made that rule of love; but when we're old and gray,
I've noticed it sometimes somehow fails to work the other way.

Strange another thing: when our boys an' girls was grown,
And when, exceptin' Charley, they'd left us there alone;
When John he nearer an' nearer come, an' dearer seemed to be,
The Lord of Hosts he come one day an' took him away from me.

Still I was bound to struggle, an' never to cringe or fall—
Still I worked for Charley, for Charley was my all;
And Charley was pretty good to me, with scarce a word or frown,
Till at last he went a-courtin', and brought a wife from town.

She was somewhat dressy, an' I adn't a pleasant smile—
She was quite conceity, and carried a heap of style;
But if I ever tried to be friends, I did with her, I know;
But she was hard and proud, an' I could't make it go.

She had an education, an' that was good for her;
But when she twitted me on mine, 'twas carryin' things too fur;
An' I told her once, 'fore company (an' it almost made her sick,)
That I never swallowed grammer, or 'et a 'rithmetic.

So 'twas only a few days before the thing was done—
They was a family of themselves, and I another one;
And a very little cottage one family will do,
But I never have seen a house that was big enough for two.

An' I never could speak to suit her, never could please her eye,
An' it made me independent, an' then I didn't try;
But I was terribly staggered, an' felt it like a blow,
When Charley turned ag'in me, an' told me I could go.

I went to live with Susan, but Susan's house was small,
And she was always a-hintin' how snug it was for us all;
And what with her husband's sisters, and what with child'rn three,
'Twas easy to discover that there wasn't room for me.

An' then I went to Thomas, the oldest son I've got,
Old Thomas' buildings'd cover half of an acre lot;
But I the child'rn was on me—I couldn't stand their sauce—
And Thomas said I needn't think I was comin' there to boss.

An' then I wrote to Rebecca, my girl who lives out West,
And to Isaac, not far from her—some twenty miles at best;
And one of 'em said 'twas too warm there for any one so old,
And t'other had an opinion the climate was too cold.

So they have shirked and slighted me, an' shifted me about—
So they have well-nigh soured me, an' wore my old heart out;
But still I've borne up pretty well, an' wasn't much put down,
Till Charley went to the poor-master, an' put me on the town.

Over the hill to the poor-house—my child'rn, dear, good-by!
Many a night I've watched you when only God was nigh;
And God will judge between us; but I will al'ays pray
That you shall never suffer the half I do to-day.

ENTERPRISE.—L. D. Apsley the enterprising agent of whom we spoke recently is now with that excellent firm Messrs. Stewart, Marks, Ralph & Co. Manufacturers and wholesale dealers in tobacco segars &c. 115 Arch St Phila. Mr. Apsley is an excellent young man and we ask for him the consideration of our Merchants.

GOOD ADVICE.—Be reserved, but not sour; grave, but not formal; bold, but not rash; humble, but not servile; patient, but not insensible; constant, but not obstinate; cheerful, but not light; rather be sweet tempered than familiar; familiar rather than intimate, and intimate with very few, and upon good grounds.

HONORS TO THE HEROIC DEAD.

"From these honored dead we take increased devotion to the cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion."—President Lincoln.

Blest are the martyred dead who lie
In holy graves for freedom won,
Whose storied deeds shall never die,
While coming years their circles run.
Blest be the ground where heroes sleep,
And blest the flag which o'er them waves;
Its radiant stars their watch will keep,
And brightly beam on hallowed graves.

The following excellent and patriotic address was delivered on Decoration Day at Gettysburg, Pa., by Capt. J. H. Harpster:

It is an instinctive impulse of the human heart to pay homage to heroism.—The world has been quick to record and perpetuate the memory of heroic deeds and heroic men. Demosthenes urges Athens by the memory of her fallen braves, lifts his hands to the gods, and swears by them that rushed on death at Marathou and Platea. The countrymen of Æschylus, standing ready to stone him to death, can not withstand the appeal, when his brother Aminias drops his robe and shows the stump of his own right arm lost at the battle of Salamis; whilst the armies of the Union, with a country's destiny in their hands, and the memory of Washington and Warren and Jackson in their hearts, go marching on to the tune of "John Brown's body lies mouldering in the grave."

Heroes ennoble and expand our lives. Humanity is lifted up and inspired by its heroic souls. Whose heart thrills not at the story of Solon, who in his old age put on his a.mor, and planted himself in military posture before the door of his house at Atnens, alone and single-handed, to resist the overthrow of his country's liberty?

And it is right that it should be so—this homage to heroism; for he who, in sublime devotion to his country, takes his life in his hands, and throwing himself between the liberties of his fellow citizens and their foes, exposes his own brave breast to the death-shot of the enemy, and amid the roar and din and tumult and death-grapple wrests victory from the foe, confers the highest and costliest boon which one human being can confer upon another. And so, with this feeling of "hero worship" strong upon us, we come to-day with gratitude in our hearts and flowers in our hands, and lay them reverently upon the graves of these our heroic dead.

Sometimes, when a great sorrow has come upon us, we try to deceive ourselves into the belief that it is but an empty conception—a dream which has existence only in the wild vagaries of the mind. Even so, when we look back through the lengthened vista of eight years, to the time when these hills shook beneath the thunderous boom of artillery, and the hill-sides lay covered with the gory forms of mangled, dying men, we say it is a dream—the vision will pass away with the numberless others equally unsubstantial that have passed before. But ah! it is not a dream. Oh! what a joyous awakening, if it were so! What hallelujahs would ring out from ten thousand desolate homes all over the land! The mighty volume rolling down from the prairies of the west and the granite hills of New England, meeting the confluent tide of thanksgiving rolling northward from the stricken homes of Georgia and Texas, would raise such a shout of exultant joy as none but the redeemed of God may know when their tired feet shall press the hills of Paradise. It is not a dream. That vision of belching cannon, and sulphurous smoke, and charging squadrons, and yells of defiance, dripping bayonets, and mutilated dying men, is not a mere fancy flitting across our view and disappearing in shadow and unreality. As we stand to day amid the mouldering bones of nearly five thousand gallant men, who went down in that storm of carnage and blood, we realize it to be a terrible reality. On the very spot on which we stand, now so calm and peaceful in its garb of green, "mother," "sister," "wife," once burst from pallid lips, as the glazed eye closed in death's long, lasting sleep.

And now, why these dead men—this hecatomb of martyr heroes, stricken down in the full spring-tide of high hope and lofty aspirations? Why this ruthless sacrifice of young and glorious manhood? The old, old story of blind, reckless ambition riding to power over fields of crushed and dying men. Ten years ago, a number of reckless legislators in our Congressional halls seemed suddenly to have gone mad. Selected by the country to guide the ship of state through the shoals and quicksands of political peril, they sought only how they might destroy her. The country besought them, in tears, to stop in their mad impiety, and stay the fratricidal hand that was uplifted to strike down the last hope of "government by the people and for the people." The wise men of the nation, surveying with prophetic vision the gloomy horizon of the future and forseeing the inevitable woe which a civil war would bring upon the country, besought them by every motive of philanthrophy, and religion, and true patriotism, to stay the terrible calamity. Mothers, in the holy solicitude of maternal affection, threw their arms around the necks of their sons and besought them, as only a mother can, to spare them. Wives, with pallid lips and hearts oppressed with fear, gazed upon their husbands, in whom was centered all that was dear in life, and in the agony of despair implored them, by considerations the highest and holiest that ever appealed to human sympathy, to spare them. The aged sire, gazing with quivering lip upon the son of his love and the prop of his old age, prayed that they would spare his boy. Nothing could dissuade them from their unholy purpose. Considerations of patriotism and political virtue—the fearful experience of the horrors of intestine war—the ties of human brotherhood—the obligation of religion—all were spurned; and with one fell swoop the murderous hand descended opon the vitals of the nation; and then, as the genius of American liberty lay quivering—stabbed by the very men who should have permitted themselves to be torn limb from limb rather than permit a single impure hand to touch her sacred form, the assassins fled from the Capitol and the bleeding and betrayed nation sent forth her cries to the nation's loyalty. "We are coming, Father Abraham," rang back on those April breezes, like the voice of God, and with a tramp like "the roar of many waters," four hundred thousand heroic men marched down to death and immortality.

The murderous hand of southern traitors failed to accomplish its purpose, and the nation was saved; but let me remind you, fellow citizens, if amid the ceaseless changes of the on-flowing years you have forgotten it—let me remind you, that it was only after the smoking life-blood of four hundred thousand heroic men had reddened the altar of the grim Moloch of war.

Here, then, is the cause of these dead men! These are the sacrificial oferings of liberty—freedom's vicarious atonement! These are the men, who, when the trumpet call of treason sounded to arms to destroy the nation, rushed to the fore-front of battle, and, with a heroine sublimer than that of fabled gods of old, checked the onrushing tide, by a rampart built up of their dead bodies.

Here, on Cemetery Ridge, and Culp's Hill, and Little Round Top, was renacted the struggle for the ark of the Covenant. Not the same, indeed, but not one whit less the ark of God than that for which the armies of Israel struggled on the plains of Eben-Ezar three thousand years ago. What influence the battle of Gettysburg may exert upon the future of this country and of the world, we may not venture to assert. How much it may contribute to the series of moral and political influences which are slowly but surely ushering in the era of a universal Republic, we do not know; but this we know—that a great principle was demonstrated here—the principle that man, under God, is capable of self-government that a Republic can be maintained. The myriads of earth, supinely bending under the yoke of kingly despotism, may have furnished a basis for the tyrant's dictum, that "government by the people" is a practical impossibility; but here, amid the storm and carnage of those July days, was refuted forever the lie that man needs a master. In the thunders of artillery that hurled Lee's army back from these heights, stunned and beaten, were heard but the first rumblings of the approaching earth-quake that shall yet tumble to the dust the outworn institutions and despotisms of earth.

We are among those who believe that God in his eternal purposes, designs to make a republican form of government the government of the world; and we believe, also, that the forces evolved from the American Conflict, whose issues were determined by the battle of Gettysburg, are the forces which shall yet free men from unjust laws, and despotic institutions, and tyranical monarchs, and give universal freedom to the race. And if this be true, then every soldier lying here, unknown and nameless though he be, has claims not only upon us who now enjoy the purchase of his valor, but upon all who in the on-coming years shall reap the fruit for which he gave the last full measure of devotion.

And so we bring flowers to-day—roses and garlands for every gallant hero. And as we wreathe a chaplet for every one of these, we would not forget the other four hundred thousand martyr heroes, whose great grand hearts loved liberty more than they feared death, whose silent graves lie stretched out from the Susquehanna to the Rio Grande and from the Mississippi to where old ocean beats upon rock-ribbed Hatteras. We would not forget those whose bones, denied the poor boon of Christian burial, lie bleaching in the wilderness, along "the march to the sea," in the dreary swamps and bayous of the south, along the Rapidan, the Rappahannock and the James. We would not forget the champions for freedom whose martyr spirits grew to stature like the saints of old, as, shut up and chained like beasts of prey in southern prison pens, naked and cold and shivering, they starved that the nation might live—whom no bribes, no persecutions, no tortures could shake in their eternal fealty to the cause of right and liberty.

We remember them all: Baker, and Ellsworth, and Lyon, and Wadsworth, and Sedgwick, and Richardson and the gallant Smythe of the 3nd Corps, and Kearney, and McPherson, and Reynolds, and Lincoln, and all the others, with shoulder straps and without, who compose that "noble army of martyrs" which shall take rank only behind those who died for Him by whose martyrdom martyrdom was sanctified.

Therefore "bring violets." Strew them thickly; for never did gallant dead deserve them more. As for them, they are not dead. They still live! Know ye not, that, in the eternal circles of God, death is but the precursor of resurrection, and that the same laws which hasten all things to decay contain within themselves the principles of a new and higher life? They do live in the new life of four million freemen, from whose hands they struck the shackles of iron bondage; they shall live in the redeemed and regenerated nation which has already started out in a better and higher life, since she acknowledged the eternal principles of equity and right, by declaring that "all men are free and equal."

"They never die who fall in a great cause. The block may soak their gore; their heads may sodden in the sun; their limbs be strung to city gates and castle walls—but still their spirits walk abroad. Though years elapse and others share as dark a doom, they but augment the deep and sweeping thoughts that overpower all others and conduct the world at last to freedom."

"Longevity" of Coins.

The longevity of coins generally has been much reduced since railways came into being. They are in continual motion from the time of their birth, and the poor sixpence especially is short-lived in consequence of being overworked. If "one man in his time plays many parts," assuredly one coin in its course buys many times its value. A certain charge is made annually in the Mint estimates for loss accruing from the purchase of worn shillings and sixpences. These are bought of the Bank of England at their nominal value, and of course are bad bargains for the coining establishment, which recasts, and then recoins them into money of full legal weight. The last amount granted for the purchase of worn silver coin, amounted to $15,000, or 300,000 shillings, and this was supposed to represent the extent of one year's (1867) abrasion and deterioration of the silver coinage of the United Kingdom. Experience demonstrates that the annual loss of silver by the attrition of coins is in these days of trading activity much greater in value than this, although the weight of the silver thus spirited away in one year by friction is set down at 56,362 ounces.

The Road To Success.

Fortune, success, fame, position are never gained but by determinedly, bravely sticking and living to a thing till it is fairly accomplished. In short, you must carry a thing through, if you want to be anybody or anything. No matter if it does cost you the pleasure, the society, the thousand pearly gratifications of life. No matter for these. Stick to these and carry it through. Believe you were made for the matter, and that no one else can do it. Put forth your whole energies. Be awake, electrify yourself, and go forth to the task. Once learn to carry a thing through in all its completeness and proportion, and you will become a hero. You will think better of you. The world, in its very heart, admires the stern, determined doer. It sees in him its best sight, its brightest object, its richest treasure. Drive right along then in whatever you undertake. Consider yourself amply sufficient for the deed. You'll be successful.

Ignorance is Often Bliss.

You know as much as is good for you. For it is with the mind as it is with the senses. A greater degree of hearing would terrify us. If our eyes should see things mircroscopically we should be afraid to move. Thus our knowledge is suited to situation and circumstances. Were we informed beforehand of good things provided for us by Providence, from the moment we should cease to enjoy the blessings we possess, become indifferent to present duties, and be filled with restless impatience. Or suppose the things foreknown were gloomy and adverse, what dismay and despondency would be the consequence of the discovery! And how many times should we suffer in imagination what we only endure in reality! Who would wish to draw back a veil which saves them from so many disquietudes? If some of you had known the troubles through which you have since waded, you would have fainted under the prospect; but what we "know not now we shall know hereafter."

—The fact is stated that a firm of bridge builders at Phœnixville, in this State, has been awarded a contract for sixteen spans of iron railway bridges, each of 200 feet in the clear—in all 3,360 feet—for the Intercolonial railway company of Canada, beating not less than thirty competitors, most of whom were English firms Among them was the great house of Sir William Fairbairn & Co., of Massachusetts, the head of which was recently created a baronet by the Queen in recognition of his eminent position, and services as a mechanical engineer. The Phœnixville firm has also secured the contract for the international bridge at Buffalo, 2,142 feet. This work is all manufactured by the Phœnix iron company, and leaves their works in a perfect state of completeness, even to the smallest screw, bolt and rod.

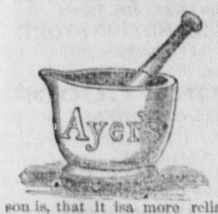
Miscellaneous.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

For all the the Purpose of a Laxative medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is souniversally required by everybody a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use in every county and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill.—The obvious reason is, that it isa more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them: those who have not, knows that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its compositton. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containiag neither calomel or any deleterous drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal vicera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructi ons from the stomach' bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, BILLIOUS COLIC and BILLIOUS FEVERS, they should be judiciously taken for each case. to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back or Loins, they should be continuously taken,as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

DR. J. AYER, Practical Chemist, LOWELL, MASS.

I do not wish to inforrm you reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures Consumption, waen the lungs are half consumed, in short, will eure all diseases whether of mind, body or estate, make men live forever, and leave death to play for want of work and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful Paradise, to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show. You have heard enough ot that kind of humbuggery. But when I tell you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head. I only assert that which thousands can testify to. I will pay $500 Reward for a case that I cannot cure. A pamphlet giving symptoms and other information sent free to and address. This remedy is

SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Price 50 cents. Sent by man, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of Genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private Stamp, issued by the United States Government expressly for stmping my medicines, has my portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. Certificate of Genuiness," engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr. Sage; I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the Genuine Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicite.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine.

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable. read the following.

☞ Let all who caa believe facts, and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents. That, on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydrick to me known as such, and being duly sworn deposed as follows: "That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof for preparations or medicines known as Dr. Maggiel's Pills and Salve, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITRE, Notary Public,
[L. S.] 14 Wall St. New York.

June 1st, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has laft me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, Doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss. JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue, D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me, by him, about eight weeks after the accident:

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy: I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal: I tried Maggiel's Salve and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and anybody can see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 24 Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Greeck St.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured.'

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail."

I Have over 200 such Testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS,

And all erruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following Diseases: Asthma, Bowel Complaints, Coughs, Colds, Chest Diseases, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, Dropsy, Debility, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Headache, Indigestion, Influenza, Inflammation, Inward Weakness, Liver Complaints, Lowness of Spirits, Ring Worm, Rheumatism, Scalds, Skin Diseases, Salt Rheum, etc.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND FLUID Extract Catawba GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubard and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick Or Nervous Headache, Costiveness Etc. Purely Vegetable, Containing No Mercury, Minerals Or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S

Price, $1 50 Per Bottle.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of the Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Caloulus, Gravel, Brick-dust Deposit, and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions of of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision. Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Palid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pain; bed-wetting in children.

B

Helmbold's extract buchu is Diuretic and Blood-Purifying, and Cures all Diseases arising from habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Imprudences in life Impurites of the Blood, Etc., Superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—In these Diseases used in Connection with Helmbold's rose wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to ladies, the extract buchu is Unequalled by any other Remedy as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or schirrus state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all Complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipatson. It is prescribed extensively by the most Eminent Physicians and Midwives for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions, of Both Sexes and all Ages (attended with any of the above Diseases or Symptoms.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflamation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflammation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restore the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to undounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidences of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

Is the only perfected and scientifically prepared preparation of its kind ever offered to the public, and has no competitor in merit. By its use GRAY HAIR is soon restored to its original youthful color and brilliancy, which is so much admired by all. Persons whose hair is thin or falling out will, by the use of our Renewer, soon see its good effects, as, by its tonic and stimulating properties the hair glands will be incited and the hair grow thick and strong again. In cases of Baldness it will create a new growth unless the follicles are destroyed. It is cooling, and allays all itching and irritation of the scalp. It does not stain the skin as do dyes, but makes the scalp white and clean. As a DRESSING it is the best and most economical preparation in the world, as its effects last so much longer. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

OF BEAVER COUNTY.

FOR SURNEYOR GENERAL,

ROBERT B. BEATH,

OF SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

LOOK TO THE LEGISLATURE.

The Pittsburg Commercial urges upon the Republicans of Pennsylvania "the importance of retaining the Legislature in their hands." It is known that the Democrats intend to make special efforts not only to retain their present majority of one in the Senate, but to secure a majority in the other branch also. In the pursuit of this purpose they will take advantage of any circumstance that will assist them, whether the supineness of the Republicans, indiscreet nominations, local differences, or other causes, and in the hopelessness which they already perceive stares them in the face of electing their State ticket, they will offer to trade off their State candidates for votes for Democratic legislative nominees. In this direction, it is well known, Mr. Wallace, who is managing the canvass, will specially bend his efforts.

"The reason why the Legislature should not depart from the Republicans into the hands of the Democrats we need not rehearse. That there are evils at Harrisburg, must be confessed, but such a change must bring no remedy. It would prove an almost unendurable aggravation. If the Democrats were for correcting these evils they would not throughout the late session have resisted constitutional reform. As it was they were able to postpone reform at least a year, if not for a longer period, their object being, meanwhile, to revel in the possession of both branches of the Legislature. It there were not other reasons, the fact that on the next Legislature will devolve the duty of forming new Congressional districts under the last census would be specially vigilant. It gives us pleasure to assure our friends that, although there is no particular excitement, the prospect generally is good; that our State Committee, through Major Errett, the energetic Chairman, are giving proper attention to the important work committed to their hands, and that nothing will be omitted in that quarter. Now let the local organizations, and the Republican voters generally, prepare to second these efforts, and under no circumstances should the efforts of the opposition to gain possession of the Legislature be suffered to be successful."

PLATFORMS AND CANDIDATES.

The Constitutionalist, Augusta, Ga., says:

"The political atmosphere is resounding with loud utterances in other sections of the country as to platforms on which the Presidential battle of next year is to be fought, and as to the candidates who are to carry the standards. Even in this quiet and much maligned region of corn and cotton culture, and of carpet-bag and Ku Klux devilries, much of the last wholly bogus, discussion is sought to be elicited. Such discussions here seem to us wholly premature and useless, if not mischievous. They are sought by parties and by interests which have not the good of the Southern people at heart, or the principles the Southern people have been taught to revere. They are prompted by the plans and aims and aspirations of people and of politicians a long distance from us, and with few sympathies in common with us. We are not much troubled with questions of Republican platforms and candidates. The matter is fixed up without much consultation with the real sentiment of the South. But the Northern Democrats are getting to be very demonstrative in their attentions, and very anxious to coax the Southern people into committals and positions which will aid them in their local State elections. It would be bad policy for us to mix up in their affairs. Ohio and Pennsylvania Democrats can manage their State elections without our assistance. So can the Republicans.

But the Presidential canvass is a full year off. When it does come, "with the lights now before us," we shall advise the former Confederate States to keep clear of National Democratic Conventions.

They cannot go into one and express their honest opinions and wishes without damaging their Northern allies. They cannot adopt the opinions of their Northern allies without discrediting themselves. The disastrous experience of 1868 would be repeated in 1872. We doubted the policy of the Southern men taking seats in the convention at Tammany Hall then. We thoroughly believed it impolitic. Our convictions are unchanged. It would be to repeat an impolicy, or to submit to humiliation. It would be impolitic to insist on a platform expressing the views of the Southern Democracy. It would be impolitic to be there to protest, and protest vainly against the views of the Northern Democracy. It would be a humiliation to be voted down, and have unpalatable propositions forced upon them by a solid Northern vote, and perhaps a portion of weak-kneed Southern placemen, coaxed or bought over to the strong side. It would be a disgrace to accept and pledge support to a platform that contradicts the earnest convictions of the mind."

BELLEFONTE AND ITS MANUFACTORIES.

We clip the following article from the Kittanning Sentinel in order to let our people see what strangers think of our manufactories, our great facilities, advantages and wealth:

Bellefonte, is located very near the geographical centre of the State, in Centre county, and is reached by railroad from Pennsylvania Central at Tyrone, by way of Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, and from the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad at Lock Haven, by Bald Eagle Valley to Bellefonte. These railroad facilities place it within easy access from all parts of the State.

Among the more prominent manufacturing establishments of Bellefonte and vicinity, may be named the following:

BELLEFONTE GLASS WORKS.

This establishment which is now under the management of J. V. Thomas, is one of the most complete establishments in the United States. It is now being run to its full capacity which is about one hundred and fifty half boxes of window glass per day. The glass made at this factory is of a superior quality, being almost equal to the best French window glass. The sand, the lime, and the coal, used in its manufacture are obtained close at hand and are of the very best quality, and the supply is inexhaustible. Although this factory has been in operation but a few years the very superior quality of the glass commands a better price than any in the market, and the demand is already so great that the company intend erecting another ten pot furnace.

LIME KILNS.

Close by the glass works are located the Sunny Side Lime Kilns, owned by J. R. & C. T. Alexander, and the Bellefonte Lime Kilns owned by Messrs. Shortlidge & Co. At these two establishments quite a large number of hands are employed in the quarrying of stone and the burning of lime. They have inexhaustible quantities of the purest lime stone in the world—a chemical analysis of which shows it to be ninety-seven and a half per cent. carbonate of lime. It is a beautiful snow white lime and is extensively used in the manufacture of glass in Pittsburg and for building purposes in the western and northern part of this State, and also in the State of New York. The present capacity of the two establishments above named is about nine hundred bushels per day, and although the business is comparatively new to this locality the superior quality of the lime has created a demand far beyond the capacity of the Kilns and the parties intend erecting additional Kilns upon an extensive scale.

THE IRON INTERESTS.

The iron interests of Bellefonte and vicinity although not as extensive as those of Johnstown and Danville, turn out a large quantity of the best charcoal iron that is made in the State. Among those engaged in the business may be named Valentine & Co., who are the owners of and run a charcoal furnace, the capacity of which is about sixty tons pig metal per week. Also Linn & McCoy's charcoal furnace of about the same capacity, also Howard Iron Works about the same capacity, and the Eagle Iron Works same capacity. Connected with all the above furnaces, and forges, are rolling mills, in which the pig metal is converted into blooms, bar iron and wire of the finest quality. The bulk of the bar iron is shipped to the New England States, where it is used in manufacture of cutlery, fine wire, best boiler iron, and imitation Russia sheet iron. As a fine quality of iron it is unequaled in the United States and unsurpassed by any in the world.

In addition to the Iron Works above named and as worthy of favorable mention is a new Rolling Mill in the suburbs of Bellefonte, owned and run by Valentines, which is one of the most complete in all its appointments that can be found in the State. In it they can make most anything, from railroad iron to the finest wire.

The engine and nearly all of the machinery of this establishment was made at the extensive foundry and machine shops of Wm. P. Duncan, near the railroad depot in the town. Wm. Duncan is a practical machinist and turns out from his elegant shops a very large amount of work. He makes a specialty of Steam Engines, Portable and Stationery, Saw Mills, Grist Mill Gearing, Turbin Water Wheels, &c.

The above mentioned establishments, together with a large Planing Mill, and extensive Grist Mills, make up the material interests of the town—which is situate in the heart of one of the largest and best agricultural districts in the State.

Close by, and within the county, is the Snow Shoe bituminous coal field which is reached by a railroad, distant about twenty-five miles from Bellefonte. The coal mined in the Snow Shoe region is of excellent quality and for all purposes for which bituminous coal is used it cannot be excelled.

Last, though by no means least, is the spring one of the greatest natural curiosities of the kind we have ever seen. Within the city limits and inside of a space of perhaps forty feet square, and enclosed with a fence, gushes out of the earth sufficient water to supply the entire city, pure, clear as crystal and cold as ice, and with its own force turns a wheel which sends the water upon a neighboring hill to furnish this supply, whilst at the same time sufficient escapes to form quite a creek in capacity, and afford power for machinery.

TRAVELING HUMBUGS.—An exchange remarks that the pleasant weather has put the itinerant nostrum venders on the "move." It is somewhat astonishing that people will persist in patronizing these adventurers, when we have reliable drug stores in our midst, where genuine goods can be bought of our citizens, who pay rent and taxes, and are hereby assisting in building up and advancing the prosperity of the town. Every dollar spent with these peripatetic loafers is just so much money drawn from our midst to the detriment of our store-keepers. We advise our citizens to patronize our town business people, and let these candle-light peddlers "alone very severely."

For the REPUBLICAN.

PENNSVALLEY June 27th 1871.

COL. BROWN:

Dear Sir.—From the turn of the fish on the political vane, we see that Bellefonte is mapping out its claims for office so very extensively, that there will not be sufficient room on the whole list to place the foot of an outsider, that is one who is not a member of the ring. Bellefonte has been manufacturing the politics and candidates, for the democracy of Centre county, in its own interests, disregarding the interests of the county at large long enough. I for one enter my protest against it; and in doing so think I represent the sentiment of many honest democrats this side of the mountain, Bellefonte puts forth a democratic candidate for every office, which is to be filled by an election this fall. The office of Associate Judge, Treasurer, Legislature and District Attorney, all find an eager representative in Bellefonte, now we have meekly submitted to this thing about as long as we intend. Meek and Orvis for the legislature present rather a mysterious phase as yet. Meek claims a renomination on the ground of the two year rule, although he was the one who was the greediest to decapitate, honest Jacob G. Moyer, and step in and take the second year of his term, and limit him one year only.

Then should Meek be renominated on that ground alone? I say not. It is true, if we had no other democrats in the county, who are honest, and fully as capable of representing us, as Meek, then we might not object to Meeks return. But have we not a Chester Munson, a Capt. J. A. Hunter, and a Col. W. W. Love, all of whom are honest, tried and able democrats, and none of whom are tainted with the ring corruption of Bellefonte? Why not select one of those men to represent us in Harrisburg, as well as either Meek or Orvis. But then is not the apparent struggle between them political ruse, to throw Munson and party off the track, and then coalesce and thus secure the renomination of P. G. Meek? Such things have occurred in political history before, and it is not improbable that they may occur again. We then suggest to the west end of the county to be on the look out for some shrewd trickery, and to ply your own oars with heavy stroke, as you will meet a favorable response from our end. We feel determined to teach somebody a valuable lesson, and to assert our claims as matter of right. And if the ring feel disposed to discard them, they will hear no uncertain sound at the polls in October. Since the adoption of the democratic platform at the recent convention at Harrisburg, there don't seem to be much difference between democrats and republicans nowadays any how. They both spell "nigger" about alike. But more of that hereafter. I shall also take occasion to notice county taxes &c., in due time. Yours &c.

DEMOCRAT OF POTTER.

TOWNSHIP ACCOUNTS.—By a law passed at the last session of the legislature, township clerks are required, within sixty days after the annual election, to make out and publish a full and complete statement of the financial condition of the township, under a penalty of $50. There are many townships in every county of the Commonwealth, of whose financial condition nothing whatever is known, and of which but little could be learned from the records as they have been or are now kept. This is not only a source of great inconvenience and embarrassment, but of great dissatisfaction among the people, and a discredit to officers, which it is the purpose of this law to remedy. Let the new law be enforced, then, that the people of each township may have a detailed statement of how their money is collected and expended, and of the way their accounts are kept. If this enactment is lived up to as it should be, it will prove a source of profit and satisfaction to every township. There is nothing better calculated to make men careful and honest, than a knowledge of the fact that their accounts must be placed before the public for critical inspection.

IT is a gratifying fact says the Philadelphia Press, that, while serious dissensions in the Democratic ranks are rapidly increasing in nearly all the States that are of most political importance, increasing harmony is the present characteristic of the Republican party, with a few minor exceptions. To Republicans who comprehend the issues the approaching contest does not appear to be one of trifling importance, and this is the secret of the increasing harmony and strength. The fundamental principles on which this party was organized are as important now as they were fifteen years ago. They cannot be affected by age, and the party that supports them cannot lose its mission. If the first duty was to make them the principles of the Government, the next is to maintain them as such. The out-look on the political field leaves no room to doubt that in this the Republicans will be as successful as they were in the first act of the grand drama.

A splendid assortment of pocket books at Green's Drug Store.

IS IT RIGHT.—The following appeal for money is not without humor and abounds in truth. It appeared in the Easton Argus about forty-two years ago, and is not by any means out of date: "We have many subscribers who have paid us nothing. Do such people think we can live on birch bark, like a Cossack's horse, or grow fat by inhaling the west wind? Do they suppose that the Female Charitable Society finds us with clothes? Do they suppose that paper, type, ink, fuel and many other costly and necessary articles are sent us by an unknown and invisible hand? Whatever Dr. Faustus might have done, the black art of modern printers has no such magic in it. When hungry we have no time to fish or hunt, and it would be impious to expect a sheet full of good things to be miraculously let down from the heavens by the four corners, as in the case of Peter, and, as to being fed by ravens, it is more likely that ravens will feed scantily upon us unless we get some money shortly."

FORGETTING THE TEXT.

There is something more than the fun of the thing in the following incident, related by a correspondent of the Louisville Commercial:

The Second Presbyterian Church of Danville, Kentucky, being without a pastor for the present, the different ministers of the town, especially those connected with the theological seminary, preach alternately to the orphan congregation, and lately it was Dr. Yerke's turn to deliver a sermon to a large assembly. In an eloquent oration he uttered the words of divine truth, when suddenly—horribile dictu!—a member affected with a bad cold commenced blowing his nose most violently. A terrible blowing it was, such as you never heard before in all your life, and such as the poor doctor never hopes to hear again. It evidently had swept the whole of the beautiful sermon out of his memory, and having no notes about him, he tried in vain to restore the broken connection. But, alas! he could discover neither end, and the frightened doctor exclaimed: "Brother McMullen, will you oblige me by repeating the text?" The reverend brother arose, thought a while, stammered, and sat down again—he gave it up. "Please will any one in the congregation let me know my text?" After a long pause, a student said: "I. Corinthians, x., 16." Relieved from a great burden, the happy Doctor opened the Bible, but only to find that it was only a sad mistake. "This is not the right one. Please can not any one recollect the text?" A dead silence followed. Prof. Beatty, of Center College rubbed his head in despair, but he neither rubbed the text out of it or into it. Rev. Mr. Johnson, and many of his brethren, together with the whole congregation, all were unable to find the lost darling. The laughter which now followed was indescribable, and quite a time passed before the house could be called to order. It being finally restored the Doctor called on Mr. McMullen to close the meeting with prayer, and all adjourned perfectly convinced that they had listened to one of the most remarkable sermons ever preached.

In a recent editorial on the subject of the late speeches of Jeff Davis, the New York Evening Post made incidental allusion to the peculiar manner in which he was garbed at the period of his capture. A chivalrous Southern friend of the "beloved President" thereupon writes to that journal in which the element of vitriol struggles for the mastery with that of sulphuric acid. The remarkable feature of the communication, however, is the hint which it throws out that Barnum's museum, instead of taking fire by accident, as has all along been supposed, was burned by a Southern sympathizer in revenge for the great showman's effigy of the flying rebel disguised in the habiliments of a woman. Jeff Davis was captured on the 11th of May, 1865, and Barnum's museum was consumed on the 13th of July following. Considering the fact that not very long before a frightful plot was laid by the friends of the "beloved President" to lay the whole city of New York in ashes, it is not impossible, to say the least, that the popular impression respecting the origin of the fire in question, may have been wider of the mark than this writers' suggestion of "righteous retribution."

—The proposed Berks county R. R., will, when completed, be 35 miles in length, commencing at New Tripoli, Lehigh Co., at the terminus of a road some nine miles in length, now in course of construction by the Lehigh Valley road from Slatington, and down the valley of the Maiden creek to the mouth of that stream, thence following the Schuykill to Reading, and passing down the west bank of the river to Birdsboro, where it will join the Wilmington and Reading road. The cost will not exceed $1,000,000. Should this enterprise prove a success, the Lehigh coal region will be in direct cheap communication with the lakes on the north and the tidewater of the Delaware on the south, affording an opportunity of putting the coal from that quarter into the market at a reduction from the past and present rates.

They who do the thinking will either directly or indirectly, do the governing.

A SMALL POX REMEDY.—The following recipe we find making the rounds of our exchanges. It was furnished to the Stockton (Cal.) Herald by a correspondent, who seems very sanguine of its efficacy. Before using it, would be well, however, to consult with a competent apothecary or a good physician. The correspondent writes to the Herald as follows:

"I herewith append a recipe which has been used to my knowledge in hundreds of cases. It will prevent or cure the small pox though the pittings are filling. When Jenner discovered cow-pox in England, the world of science hurled an avalanche upon his head, but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world—that of Paris—published this recipe as a panacea for small pox, it passed unheeded. It is as unfailing as fate, and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe as I have used it, and cured my children of scarlet fever here it is as I have used it to cure small pox; when learned physicians said the patient must die, it cured:

"Sulphate of zinc, one grain; foxglove (digitalis), one grain; half a teaspoonful of sugar; mix with two tablespoonful of water. When thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours. For a child smaller doses according to age. If countries would compel their physicians to use this, there would be no need of pest houses. If you value advice and experience, use this for that terrible disease."

The Road to Success.

Fortune, success, fame, position are never gained but by determinedly, bravely sticking and living to a thing till it is fairly accomplished. In short, you must carry a thing through, if you want to be anybody or anything. No matter if it does cost you the pleasure, the society, the thousand pearly gratifications of life. No matter for these. Stick to the thing and carry it through. Believe you were made for the matter, and that no one else can do it. Put forth your whole energies. Be awake, electrify yourself, and go forth to the task. One learn to carry a thing through in all its completeness and proportion, and you will become a hero. You will think better of yourself; others will think better of you. The world in its very heart admires the stern, determined doer. It sees in him its best sight, its brightest object, its richest treasure. Drive right along then, in whatever you undertake. Consider yourself amply sufficient for the deed. You'll be successful.

OBITUARIES.—Peter B. Porter, son of Gen. Porter, who served in the war of 1812, and as Secretary of War under President John Quincy Adams, is dead. Early in life he had brilliant prospects of becoming prominent in the politics of the country, but he has been laid up with disease for the last twenty years..... June 15th, Commodore Josiah Tattnall died at Savanah, Ga. He was born near Savannah in 1796. He entered the navy in 1812, commanded the Spitfire during the Mexican war, and in 1861 he accepted the chief command of the Confederate navy.....Edwin Croswell, the old Warwick of the New York Democracy, died recently at Princeton, N. J., at the age of 74. He was for many years editor of the Albany Argus.....Hon. J. V. L. McMahon, a prominent lawyer of Maryland, died recently at the age of 71.....George Grote, the historian of Greece, died June 18th, in England, at the age of 77. His history, which he began in 1846, was finished in 1856. He also published three volumes on Plato's life and views, with abstracts of his writings.

A GOOD DOG MUZZLE.—A new arrangement, says the Washington Reporter, called the "Good Templar Non-Hydrophobiac Dog Muzzle," is heralded in the public prints, and certainly ought to be introduced in this town. It consists of a muzzle containing from half a pint to a quart of water, which fastened to the dog's nose, keeps it constantly submerged in water, thus preventing madness. It works very successfully, and will drown a large dog in five minutes if the strap holds together. By all means let us have it here.

NO WASHBOARD REQUIRED.
NO BOILING NEEDED.
By the use of the Unequaled and Unapproachable
DOBBINS' ELECTRIC SOAP,
CLOTHES, MONEY, FUEL, LABOR, TIME AND TEMPER,
ALL ARE SAVED.
Try it and use it ever afterward.
EVERY GROCER SELLS IT.
EVERY FAMILY USES IT.
NONE CAN DO WITHOUT IT.

Be sure that the wrapper has on it the cut of Mrs. Fogy and Mrs. Enterprise, and that each bar, is stamped with the name of the inventor and originator, J. B. DOBBINS, as none other is genuine.

Like everything of great value, it is extensively counterfeited, and the market filled with false and worthless Electric Soaps, none worth house-room, and dear even if given away

The finest American Toilet Soap, fully equal to the French, made by a French soapmaker in the same manner as the French soaps are made, and sold at one-fourth their price, is

DOBBINS'
TRIPLE SCENTED TOILET SOAP.
No Toilet Table is complete without it.
The Best Emollient in the Market.

It is given the preference at every watering place in the country, and is for sale everywhere.

PLEASE ASK FOR IT.

Don't be put off with any cheap common soap. Try it, and see how much BETTER it is than we say.

Miscellaneous.

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,
Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in Regulating the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.
Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

Interesting Physiolgical Facts.

Some interesting facts regarding standing, walking and lying down, are grouped in a lecture by Prof. Burt G. Wilder. In man, the great toe is the essential part of the foot in standing and walking. In the ape this is a thumb, standing out from the side of the foot, and has no power of supporting or propelling. The ape cannot carry himself erect. But put man on all fours, like an ape, and the enormous disadvantage appears at once.—The head hangs as a great weight, with no adequate muscles to support it. The curve of the back is such that the knees touch the ground, and we have to raise the thighs in order to make the feet touch the ground. Man's foot is called a plantigrade foot—that is, it has the whole sole flat upon the ground. One other animal, the bear, has a plantigrade foot; but he uses it in a different fashion. He lifts the whole foot together, and puts it down flat; while man strikes with the heel first, and rolls forward upon each toe alternately. The erect attitude is maintained only by a constant though unconscious control of the muscles of the leg by the brain. The length of the man is greater when he is lying flat than his height when he is standing. In the former case the body stretches itself; in the latter it settles down upon itself. A man is shorter when standing on one foot alone. He is shorter again when walking. For this reason ladies' skirts, which just clear the ground when they are standing, drag on the pavement as soon as they begin to walk. The different parts of the body are bent upon each other, and also swing from one side to the other. A very singular fact connected with walking is that one side of the body tends to out-walk the other. Persons with their eyes shut cannot walk in a straight line for any length of time; and persons who are lost in the woods or prairies are sure to travel in a circle. There is a greater tendency to wander off to the right than to the left.

No More Waste.

The workings of science have been reduced to such a fine point, that we are undoubtedly approaching the period when nothing will be wasted. The processes of the laboratory, the artizan and the manufacturer prove the utilization not only of what we call waste substances, but even of those heretofore considered nuisances. Thus, fusil oil, putrid cheese, gas tar, the drainage of stables, etc., are chemically transformed into matter of high commercial value. From scraps of tin, old woolen rags, and the blacksmiths' parings of horses hoofs, come blue dyes. Old iron hoops, too poor for scrap, make ink; bones, besides furnishing phosphates, are used as a source of phosphorus in making matches. The dregs of wine, for seidlitz powders and tartaric acid. Old clothes form the basis of wall paper, flock for mattresses, and Prussian blue for colorists. Even the cotton fibres, or the old fibres of cotton and wool, are chemically destroyed, freeing the wool or woolen fibre for a new career of usefulness. Woolen rags, even when rejected for shoddy, form a splendid fertilize, for the farmer.—From gas tar comes sulphate of ammonia, sal ammonia, printer's ink, lamp black, disinfectants, naptha, benzole, paraffin, to say nothing of the brilliant annaline colors for dying and calico printing.

Physical Laziness.

Physical laziness is one of the most destructive vices of the age. It causes weak, flabby, "sposhy" bodies, which are always getting out of sorts, and are so weak that a strong mind is completely thrown away upon one. In fact, a strong mind in a weak body is like a superior knife-blade in a weak and miserable handle. Its workmanship may be ever so finished, its temper ever so true, its edge ever so keen, but for want of means to wield it properly it will not cut to much purpose. Ambitious youths who intend to carve out fame and fortune with their sharp intellects should think of this simile, and see to it that their bodies—the handles whereby they are to manage that wonderful weapon, the human mind—are kept in sound jointed firmly riveted perfectly-cleansed condition.

HUMAN GREATNESS.—We cannot look, however imperfectly, upon a great man without gaining something by him. He is the living light fountain, which it is good and pleasant to be near; the light which has enlightened, and which still enlightens, the darkness of the world, and this, not as a kindled lamp only, but rather as a natural luminary, shining by the gift of heaven—a flowing light fountain, as we say, of native original insight, of manhood and heroic nobleness, in whose radiance all souls feel that it is well with them.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.
GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.
Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.
People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.
Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

HOME NEWS.

WANTED.—TWO (2) Harness makers, to work on fine harness. None others need apply. JAS. SCHOFIELD.

IF Miss H—— living on Allegheny street, ever gets married, she will prefer a husband, that will buy his books at the Model Book Store.

THERE are still some five or six districts in the County, which have not sent in their annual school reports. Better be prompt and secure the State appropriation, but a few days more are left.

WHO can beat this, best Green and Black Teas, sold everywhere at $1,50 and $1,75, reduced to $1.25; best Coffee reduced from 35 to 30; 30 to 28; 28 to 25, at the American Tea Co's., Agency, Trimming's Store, No. 2 Bush House.

BIG WHEAT.—H. Ingram, Esq., the industrious farmer who resides upon Mr. Geo. Valentines farm near Bellefonte informed us on Monday last that he found enough good heads of wheat in one of his fields to make a peck of clean wheat. "How high ish dat?"

SEGARS.—And still they come. Another lot of those prime La Visions and Maravilla segars with a variety of other superior brands just received by James Welch, Post Office building where is kept always on hand the best 5 and 10 cent, segars ever sold in this town.

CHANGE OF TIME OF SERVICE.—In St. John's Catholic Church, services begin as follows: High Mass at 9½, A. M. Angel Sodality, 3 P. M. Vespers, Lecture and Benediction at 8 P. M.

The Sunday School has vacation till the first Sunday in September.

MORE BIG WHEAT.—George Taylor, one of Boggs townships enterprising farmers, found several heads of wheat, some of which contained 77 grains and others contained each 80 grains. Moreover he informed us that he found 9 stocks which had grown from one grain of wheat, and these nine stocks or heads contained 365 good grains.

BIG WORK.—Mr. Reuben Underwood, of Union township, on the 29th day of June, cradled 140 dozen of wheat large bind. David Underwood and George Morrison took up after him. This is the largest days work upon record. They are all sound Republicans. If any Democrats in the county can beat this let us know.

NARROW GUAGE RAILWAY.—The Narrow Guage Railroad proposes to bring goods to the enterprising firm of Young & Devling at such low rates of freight as to enable them to sell goods from 15 to 20 per cent. cheaper than any other dry goods House in town. They have just recieved another large supply of choice goods. Call and see them.

FREE LECTURE.—J. J. Moore, will deliver a lecture on Kansas, her soil, climate, railroads and politics. A short sketch of Colorado mines; the best place for ladies to get husbands; the best place for soldiers to locate their warrants. The public generally, ladies and the soldiers and soldiers friends are especially invited to attend at Bush's Hall on Monday the 17th, 1871, at 8 o'clock p. m., precisely.

BIG OATS.—Our friend L. B. McIntire, now of Gregg township, brought to our office on the 30th day of June last, several stocks of oats which measured 4 feet in length and the heads contained 42 grains each. Mr. McIntire is a scientific farmer, lives upon his beautiful property near Spring Mills, and declares that book farming is not a humbug. If any of our farmers can beat his oats will they please report?

ANOTHER WARNING.—On the 3th of July at Spring Mills in Gregg twp., while the young men were firing off a weight known as a "Fifty Six," it bursted into five pieces. A man by the name of Dan'l. Kennelly, who was standing about fifteen feet away was struck by one of the pieces which knocked him down and cracked his skull. Medical aid was immediately summoned and we learn from our gentlemanly reporter that Mr. Kennelly is now walking around again and doing well. Will our Spring Mills friend please report often?

ENTERTAINMENT.—We are pleased to announce that an Elocutionary entertainment will be held in Reynolds' Hall, on Saturday evening next, (the 15th inst.,) by Geo. O. Boal, for the benefit of the Young Men's Literary Society. The performance will consist of recitations and declamations of pieces selected from our best and most popular poetical and prose writers. Mr. Boal is a native of our town, a young man of fine elocutionary powers, and this in connection with the fact that the proceeds are to be appropriated to a literary society composed of our own sons and young men, should make the entertainment a grand success in a pecuniary sense. Admission, 25 cts. No reserved seats. Let the whole town attend.

THE 4TH IN BELLEFONTE.—The 4th of July has come and gone, and we are sorry to say that we had no general celebration here. Many of our citizens took their money and went to neighboring towns which had more patriotism and enterprise, to spend it. Not so, the people of St. John's Catholic church of this place. Rev. McIlvain, the Pastor of this church, determined that the day which gave birth to American Liberty and independence should not pass unnoticed. Early in the morning a large and beautiful American flag was suspended from a rope stretched across the street from the church to a large tree on the opposite side. We gazed upon it with pride and from the bottom of our heart rejoiced that the rebels had not succeeded in dividing our great country or destroying the "Old Flag" in the late rebellion.

That Flag which so majestically floated before the Catholic church on the 4th of July is 12 by 24 feet. The material of which the flag is made was purchased at the store of Messrs. Young & Devling. Great credit is due Mr. Robt. Irwin, the gentlemanly clerk, for procuring the material in proper time, as some of it had to be gotton from Philadelphia upon short notice. The credit of making the flag is due to Messrs. John Nolan, Mat Dooley and Thomas Linn, together with some of the young ladies of the congregation.

The fire works in front of the pastoral residence were really beautiful and much enjoyed by every one who saw them.

Now since St. John's Catholic Church has set this patriotic example, under the influence of their excellent and christian pastor, and as there are no politics in such demonstrations on the 4th will not the other christian churches of this place follow their example when another year has rolled round?

FOR Horse, Cattle and Poultry powder, go to Green's Drug Store.

IMPROVED STOCK.—The Railroad cars last evening, brought to Bellefonte an imported Alderny Bull and a full blooded Holstein Bull Calf, a present we are informed from William Colder, Esq., of Harrisburg, to the Agricultural College of Pennsyluania.

Enterprising and intelligent farmers throughout the State are being greatly benefited by the series of experiments going on at the three several Experimental farms controlled by the college, relating to the best rotation of crops and modes of culture—the best varieties of seeds, grains, and vegetables—the best fertilizers, &c. Want of funds and the great expenses of importation have prevented the purchase of imported stock.

Wm. Colder, himself a scientific and a practical farmer, has commenced the supply of this want. We hope that other wealthy and liberal citizens will imitate his example and that ere long agriculturists throughout the State will look to this State Institution for their supply of improved stock as they now do for their supply of improved seeds, grains and vegetables.

BEST Teas and Coffees to be found on this Continent, at the American Tea Co's., Agency. Trimming's Store, No. 2 Bush House.

RAILROAD MEETING.

Pursuant to public notice, a meeting of the subscribers to the L. C. & S. C. Railroad from Bellefonte to the North West end of Nittany mountain, was held at Bush's Hall, Bellefonte, on Saturday evening July 8th. D. G. Bush was called to the chair, and Wm. H. Blair appointed Secretary. The Chairman stated the object of the meeting and a committee, consisting of H. N. McAllister, E. Blanchard and M. T. Milliken. John Irwin, Jr., Daniel Rhoads, E. C. Humes and W. P. Duncan, were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, who after retiring for consultation reported the following:

Resolved, That as stockholders in that part of the line of the Lewisburg and Spruce Creek Railroad, between Bellefonte and the end of Nittany Mountain, we are decidedly in favor of the three feet gauge, provided that it be adopted as the gauge of the entire line, believing, as we do, the narrow gauge most profitable to the stockholders and most beneficial to the community.

On the question of the adoption of the Resolution Mr. Blanchard took the floor and said in substance:

Mr. Chairman.—It seems to me our action to night is dependent upon the proceedings of the stockholders of L. C. & S. C. Railroad, at the meeting held in Philadelphia on the 13th of June, in which the following Resolution was passed: "WHEREAS, upon a full investigation of the merits of the narrow gauge for railroads, as to economy of construction and operation; it is believed that it would be advisable to adopt such gauge for the line of the L. C. & S. C. Railroad from Tyrone to Lewisburg," Therefore

"Resolved, That the stockholders recommend to the Board of Directors to establish the gauge of of the L. C. & S. C. Railroad from Tyrone to Lewisburg at three (3) feet."

This Resolution recommends to the Board of Directors, the establishment of the gauge at 3 feet. This was done after a full and free consultation with the officers of the Penna R. R. Co., and after Mr. Edgar Thompson had investigated the subject, and was fully satisfied that the narrow gauge was the cheapest, and the best, for the development of local trade. His opinion supported by the Vice Presidents and Directors of the company, was sufficient to convince the stockholders at this meeting. What then is our duty. We desire no break of gauge between Bellefonte and Lewisburg, and as the stockholders of the L. C. & S. C. R. R. Co., have adopted the 3 feet gauage, we have no alternative left, and should acquiesce in the decision. I am satisfied that the action of this meeting was prompted by the most cogent reasons.

The estimates of the work had been made and reported to the Board by the Engineer, and the Report of the stock guaranteed and subscribed, from the Centre County line to Oak Hall fell short some $90,000, and no provision whatever for the 21 miles from Mifflinburg to the Centre County line which would cost two hundred thousand dollars. Now I ask would the stockholders insist upon a letting of the Road under such circumstances. It could not be done in justice to stockholders and contractors. The only alternative was a Narrow Gauge or no road, the conditions of the contract with the Penn'a. R. R., not having been complied with. Under this state of facts, would not every stockholder in Pennsvalley have voted for the adoption of the above Resolution; Strengthened by the opinion of the best Railroad men in the Country, I think we should acquiesce in the above action, as I am satisfied the Company have acted wisely. I am willing to be guided in this matter, by men who have given the subject a full and fair investigation. I am free to admit that all my prejudices were against it when first discussed but I cannot answer the arguments urged in favor of the new system, and I feel they are unanswerable. Whatever our action may be, let it be harmonious and united. I am satisfied the Penna. R. R. Co., will carry out in good faith all their pledges made to the people along the line, and will iron and operate the road as fast as we obtain the right of way and prepare the roadbed. The comparative cost per mile of each gauge as taken from Baird & Cos., circular is as follows:

Cost of 4 feet 8½ inch track $10,377 standard road used.
Cost of 3 feet 6 inch track $6,898,20 reduction 33⅓ per cent.
Cost of 3 feet track $5,794,70 reduction 44 per cent.
Cost of 2 feet 6 inch track $5,006,20 reduction 52⅝ per cent.
Cost of 2 feet track $4,651,29 reduction 60 per cent.

M. T. Milliken, said:

When the Narrow Gauge was first mentioned, he was as much opposed to it as any one could be, and looked upon the proposition as ridiculous and believed it was got up to break down the enterprise; but he was now in favor of it, and that because he had found from reading and talking with those, who had examined the subject, that it was not only not going backwards, but that by adopting it, we were keeping pace with the times, and would be in advance of those who were tied to the wide gauge roads. He was of the opinion that if it were not for the rolling stock the Penna R. R. Co., would at once change the gauge of their road. He believed it would be to the advantage of any company that could do so to use the 3 foot gauge. Why then should we hesitate to adopt it, when all the best railroad men in the world were recommending it, and giving good reason for doing so. If he believed that for any considerable length of time there would be a break in the gauge, it might make him hesitate, but so fully was he satisfied of the economy both in construction and working of the road, that he believed it would be but a few years till we would go to Snow Shoe upon the same gauge, and not only to Snow Shoe, but to all parts of our country. Our shortest rout to the East, we all know, is by Lewistown. Two surveys have been made for a road of 4 feet 8½ inch gauge and the estimated cost has prevented our attempting it. In a conversation with a gentleman high in authority, in P. R. R. Co., he was assured that if this road was made, a very few years would put one of the same gauge through the mountains and thus save us some 50 miles in going East.

H. N. McAllister, said:

Like the gentlemen who have preceded me, until I I had informed myself, I was opposed to the Narrow Gauge.

Inquiry and investigation, however, have not only silenced opposition but have dissipated doubts and brought me heartily to the support of the resolution introduced by the unanimous vote of your committee.

For the grading of the Narrow Gauge road the money required has been fully subscribed. For the grading of the Broad Gauge road the money required has not been subscribed. Promptitude in the completion of the road will follow the adoption of the Narrow Gauge. Procrastination and delay will follow a contention for the Broad Gauge. Other things being equal, this would have determined my action in favor of the three feet Gauge; but it has been demonstrated by actual practical results, that the Narrow Gauge not only costs less in the grading, less in the ironing and less in the equipment, but vastly less in the annual current expenses of running the road whilst the efficiency of the road is not materially impaired.

Thus greatly benefitting the stockholder without at all detracting from the advantages to the public.

It is distinctly understood, too, that those upon whom we are dependent for the money required to iron the road are in favor of the three feet gauge. I consider the question before us, a question of a three feet gauge road or no road. I say let us have a road connecting Bellefonte with Lewisburg of one uniform gauge, and let our action here to-night lead to its completion in the shortest time possible. Every citizen of Centre county here to-night—every farmer, merchant and mechanic on the line of the road, is deeply interested in securing this result.

Mr. E. C. Humes, said:

I desire, Mr. Chairman, before the vote is taken on the resolution offered by the committee, to say a word with regard to the propriety of our being unanimous in the action we are about to take, in order that it may give tone to public sentiment.

In my judgment, it is highly important that in this meeting there should be shown a disposition to harmonize with the Directors of the Penn'a R. R. Co., whose President and 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents are represented as favoring a narrow in preference to a wide gauge, and who have doubtless fully considered the objections and advantages incident to each. We have just been informed that there is lacking to complete the grading of the wide gauge as originally contemplated, over $90,000, and hence it seems to me idle to talk about insisting upon the wide as against the narrow gauge under the circumstances, and in the face of the fact that the cost of construction of the latter as compared with the former, is said to be reduced some 40 per cent. and the running expenses 20 per cent.

It is admitted that without assistance and encouragement from the Penn'a R. R. Co., this road cannot be completed and equipped, and therefore the necessity and policy of harmony if for no other reason.

My attention was first called to the subject by the receipt of a paper containing an article advocating the Narrow Gauge, which I loaned to my neighbor Mr. Milliken, who informed me shortly after, that it was conclusive to his mind and that he was converted to the doctrine. For my own part, I confess that whenen I first heard it proposed I was decidedly opposed to the measure, but, from the investigation I have given the subject since, I am fully satisfied that it will be greatly to the interest of this enterprise that we should accept the Narrow Gauge, and therefore, I am in favor of the resolution and hope there will be a unanimous vote.

In reply to a remark made that the adoption of the Narrow Gauge would provoke resistance to the payment of stock subscriptions, he gave it as his opininion that the subscribers would be compelled to pay. He understood such was the law and decisions of the Courts in similar cases.

Hon. P. Gray Meek, then took the floor, with the remark, that "Though he was not a stockholder in the branch road, yet he would say for the information of the meeting that he had in his pocket a letter from Mr. Miller, the President of the road, stating that what money was subscribed when added to what was'nt, would be amply sufficient to complete a broad gauge road. And that its friends had only to stand up for their rights and they would get them."

Mr. Meek, also made the point that our jangling and quarrelling over the gauge would result in our having no road; whereupon,

D. G. Bush, Esq., left the chair and taking the floor said that he "sanctioned the sentiment enunciated by Mr. Meek, that we must quit quarrelling or have no road." Said Mr. Bush, "we are in no situation to ask for anything except what the Penn'a R. R. will give us." "That company," said he, "are under no obligations to us, as we are $97,000 short of the subscription which we had pledged ourselves to raise, in order to get the road to that particular point from which the Penn'a R. R. Co. had agreed to finish it. And now in this view of the case and since they were willing to take our subscriptions, minus the $97,000 and give us a narrow gauge road, it is, in my opinion," said Mr. Bush, "the best thing we can do, to accept their proposition. In other words we must accept the narrow gauge or get no road. What intelligent farmer desires the defeat of this measure? What farmer of Pennsvalley will quarrel over the width of gauge and lose the great end in view—a great outlet for the product of their farms both east and west? So soon," said he, "as we accept the narrow gauge, the road will be placed under contract, and before twelve months from this date the glorious day, so long looked for, will have dawned upon Pennsvalley and the echo of the shrill whistle of the locomotive will be heard reverberating all along her mountains. It will never be let until we quit our quarrelling and accept the narrow gauge. Who is it that is keeping up this jangle and fight for broad gauge? I need not say, gentlemen, you know.

"Here Mr. Bush raising his voice to its full volume and his manly stature to its full dignity, exclaimed in the most eloquent manner," I verily believe if it had not been for the weakly emanations from one of the printing offices of this town, in opposition to the road being graded as a Narrow Gauge road, we would, before this time, have had the road put under contract.

We are sorry we could not report Mr. Bush speech in full, or to do him justice for it was evidently one of the best efforts of his life.

The stock vote was then taken which resulted as follows:—

COUNTY NORMAL SCHOOL.—The annual session of the County Normal School, or as termed by the department of common schools, the "County Normal Institute," will open at Rebersburg, on Wednesday, July 26th and continue in session from eight to ten weeks.

County Normal Schools are earnestly recommended by the State Superintendent, and are recognized as a necessary part of the working machinery of the school system of our State. We wish our schools to improve, and the only way to accomplish this is by improving our teachers. It is hoped, therefore, that our teachers and those preparing to teach will avail themselves of the opportunities thus afforded for special professional training. Honor awaits those only who press to the front. The expenses of attending the school have been made as light as possible,—boarding and furnished rooms, $2,75 per week to all who come at the beginning of the term, and $3,00 per week for those who come later. There will be daily recitations in Mental Philosophy, and theory of teaching, special attention being given to those branches; though classes will be formed in all the branches taught in the public schools. The Literary societies meet once a week. Vocal music will be taught in the school, and should there be a sufficient number desiring to take lessons on the Piano, a class will be formed under the instruction of a competent teacher.

For the REPUBLICAN.

COMPLIMENTARY.—On the morning of the 4th inst., the citizens of Central City and vicinity were somewhat surprised by a pop visit from the Unionville Cadets. This gentlemanly company under the command of Capt. Vanvalin, arrived at the Milesburg Station on the 9, A. M. train, from thence marched to the Curtin House, in front of which were given the commands "Halt, Stack Arms." Captain Dolan infused with the military spirit of '63 and '64, received them with politeness and welcomed them kindly to his hospitalities. He and his obliging lady immediately set about getting up a dinner for the occasion which was well served up and reflects credit on the part of the caterers. After partaking of the repast a drill of about two hours was given. A proposition was then made to parade the streets of Milesburg and visit Linn & McCoy's Iron Works, but a heavy shower of rain thwarted those arrangements. They tarried till the arrival of the 4 o'clock train from Lock Haven, then bidding adieu to all with the promise of repeating the visit in the future, left for home in the best of humor. Captain Vanvalin deserves credit for the part he has taken in raising this company and the manner in which he has them disciplined. Call again gentleman, we shall be glad to see you. O. K.

GREAT stir in Teas and Coffees, just received a new lot of Teas and Coffees, at still lower prices. Best Green and Black Teas $1,50 per pound, selling for $1,25, best Java Coffee 35 cts. reduced to 30 cts., best 30 cent Rio 28 to 25, positively cheaper and better then they can be bought anywhere. Try them, try them, American Tea Co's., Agency, Miss G. B. Priest's Trimming Store, No. 2 Bush House.

FACT.—A thorough examination and trial of the segars kept by our friend Welch, at the Post Office building, convinces us that a "new departure" has indeed been taken in the quality of segars now offered to the public.

Ye who love the fragrant weed, call and be convinced.

From the Presbyterean

IN MEMORIAM.

ISABELLA HENDERSON LINN.

Isabella Henderson, the esteemed wife of the late Rev. James Linn, D. D., the former venerable and beloved pastor of the Presbyterian church of Bellefonte, Pa., departed this life on Sabbath evening, June 4th, in the seventy-sixth year of her age. She was born in Shippensburg Franklin county, Pa. She came with her parents in her early childhood, to Penn's Valley, Centre county, Pa. Here, subsequently, she became a member in full communion of the Spring Creek Presbyterian church, then under the pastoral care of the Rev. William Stuart. She was called to the position of responsibility which she sustained as the wife of Dr. Linn in April, 1829, sharing the experiences of this new relationship for nearly forty years. Properly appreciative of the new sphere of duty assigned her, in the providence of God, she acted well her part. She proved herself an "helpmeet." For the last two and a half years of her life she was an invalid, being confined to her room almost constantly, and called at times to endure much physical suffering, which she bore with great patience and Christian resignation. Awaiting the time of her departure, she was not taken by surprise on the approach of the "messenger," but in the assured hope of entrance into "the rest that remaineth," she passed peacefully away. The funeral services were conducted by Messrs. Hamill Wright, and Roberts, on Tuesday afternoon, June 6th, after which the numerous company that had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to this beloved and venerable mother in Israel followed her remains to the beautiful cemetery adjoining Bellefonte, where now they quietly repose to await the coming of the Lord. Mrs. Linn was a kind neighbor, a sincere friend, an affectionate wife, a faithful mother, and humble, unpretending follower of Jesus. Unostentatious, her deeds of kindness, her acts of benevolence, her works of faith and love, were performed in a way rather to avoid than to meet the public eye. Her record is on high.—Communicated.

v2n39-1y

WE take pleasure in announcing that Linn & Wilson have secured the services of Mr. James H. Steen, one of the most competent druggists of the city of Philadelphia, who will take exclusive charge of their prescriptive business.

His last testimonial is from Chas. C. Thompson, Drugg ist 6th and Carpenter street—his last employer—and is dated,

PHILADELPHIA, July 7th, 1871.

"I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of James H. Steen, as a most competent and reliable Druggist. He is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, and thoroughly versed in all the branches of his profession." CHAS. C. THOMPSON.

From John H. Bann, Druggist and Dispensing Chemist, 21st and Ridge Avenue, Philadelphia.

"Mr. James H. Steen I have known for eighteen years. I consider him a thorough and competent Pharmaceutest, and it is with pleasure that I bear testimony to his moral worth as a man. Respectfully &c.,

JOHN H. BANN.

From Dr. David Harlan, Fleet Surgeon E. G. Squadron-

"In March 1864, the office of Surgeon Steward at the Naval Asylum, Philadelphia, became vacant, and after advertising and examination of the numerous candidates and their testimonial, Mr. James H. Steen was selected. The duties of the office embrace those of Steward and Apothecary to the Naval Asylum Hospital, where many sick and wounded were then received from the blockading squadron. The labors of Mr. Steen were very arduous and have always been given in the most prompt and cheerful manner. His accuracy, quickness and neatness in preparing drugs for the patients are equal to those of any apothecary I have known. In every respect the department of Mr. Steen has been in the highest degree satisfactory."

DAVID HARLAN,
Fleet Surgeon.
